DOCKET NO. S-20735A-10-0130

DECISION NO. 71700

ORDER FOR RELIEF AND CONSENT TO SAME

Respondents World Group Securities, Inc. ("WGS") and Terry E. Wengert ("Wengert") (collectively "Respondents") elect to permanently waive any right to a hearing and appeal under Articles 11 and 12 of the Securities Act of Arizona, A.R.S. § 44-1801 et seq. ("Securities Act") with respect to this Order For Relief and Consent to Same ("Order"). Respondents admit the jurisdiction of the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission"); neither admit nor deny the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained in this Order; and solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, consent to the entry of this Order by the Commission.

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

A. Background

1. WGS has conducted business within or from Arizona as a registered securities dealer since April 12, 2002, with several branch offices in Arizona.

1 2. Until June 23, 2009, Wengert was a WGS field supervisor, acting in the capacities of 2 Branch Office Manager ("BOM") of a Mesa branch office, and Office of Supervisory Jurisdiction
3 ("OSJ") Manager with supervisory responsibilities related to several other WGS BOMs in Tempe 4 and Mesa, Arizona. Wengert is currently a registered securities salesman with WGS through an 5 office located in Gilbert, Arizona.

6 3. WGS and Wengert may be referred to collectively as "Respondents."

7 4. WGS is the affiliate broker-dealer of World Financial Group, Inc. ("WFG"), a financial 8 services marketing company based in Duluth, Georgia.

9 5. WFG recruits agents who, upon obtaining the necessary licenses, registrations, and other 10 requirements, can sell certain approved financial services products.

11 6. Some of WFG's agents also become registered as securities salespersons under WGS's 12 securities dealer registration. Upon obtaining the necessary securities registrations, licenses, and 13 other requirements, these salespersons are permitted to sell certain approved securities products 14 sold by WGS, including, for example, variable universal life insurance, variable annuities, mutual 15 funds, and money market funds.

16 7. WFG's marketing philosophy is, among other things, to recruit new agents to help 17 families secure their well-being and future retirement. WFG offices hold recruiting meetings to 18 discuss opportunities available through WFG.

19 8. Compensation for approved securities and non-securities products is commission-based 20 and paid through WFG, which provides payment services for WGS.

21 9. WGS operates in a highly regulated industry. WGS's supervisory and compliance
22 duties in Arizona are effectuated through a Regional Office of Supervisory Jurisdiction ("ROSJ")
23 Manager, OSJ Manager, Regional Compliance Manager ("RCM"), BOM, Branch Office Supervisor
24 ("BOS"), and Field Compliance Auditors, and supported by the Supervisory and Compliance 25 departments in Duluth, Georgia, which provide supervisory and compliance efforts and support for 26

1 Arizona and other regions of the country through, for example, field auditors and surveillance 2 personnel.

3 B. Aspects of WGS's Supervisory and Compliance Structure and the Prohibition on 4 Unauthorized Private Securities Transactions

5 10. WGS has a department based in Duluth, Georgia that is dedicated to implementing 6 policies and procedures consistent with state and federal securities laws and Financial Industry 7 Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") industry rules and standards designed to protect investors and 8 promote market integrity.

9 11. FINRA requires dealers to maintain written supervisory policies and procedures. WGS's 10 Written Supervisory Procedures Manual is and was available on-line for all salespersons and 11 supervisors.

12 12. WGS uses field supervisors, including, for example, OSJ Managers and BOMs, to assist 13 in WGS's supervisory and compliance requirements.

14 13. This matter involves certain supervisory deficiencies relating to unauthorized private 15 securities transactions—prohibited conduct in the securities industry generally known as "selling 16 away," which includes any unauthorized participation in the promotion, offer, or sale of any 17 securities products that are not approved products of the dealer.

18 14. Under the Securities Act, selling away is dishonest and unethical conduct by registered 19 securities salespersons and is defined as "effecting securities transactions that are not recorded on 20 the records of the dealer with whom such salesman is registered at the time of the transaction."

21 C. WGS Arizona Salesmen's Unauthorized Private Securities Transactions

22 15. In 2008, WGS brought to the attention of the Securities Division ("Division") selling
23 away by three WGS registered securities salesmen: two BOMs who were under Wengert's OSJ 24 supervisory responsibility and one field representative. Both the Division and WGS conducted 25 investigations concerning these salesmen and their unauthorized activities. As a result of WGS's 26 investigations, which were launched as soon as the activities were discovered, WGS promptly

1 terminated two of the salesmen, and the remaining salesman resigned during WGS's investigation.
2 The Division's investigation resulted in the Commission's revocation of the three salesmen's 3 securities registrations, as well as restitution orders against them totaling approximately $3.5 4 million resulting from their unauthorized and fraudulent private securities transactions involving 5 unregistered securities. The Orders entered against these WGS salesmen are summarized below.

6 1. Kleese Order

7 16. On February 23, 2009, in Decision No. 70752, the Commission entered an Order to 8 Cease and Desist, for Restitution, of Revocation, and for Administrative Penalties and Consent to 9 Same ("Kleese Order") against Brett S. Kleese ("Kleese") and BSK Enterprises, LLC ("BSK"), 10 Kleese's Arizona limited liability company (collectively "Kleese Respondents"). Kleese was a 11 BOM under Wengert's OSJ supervision, operating out of the Mesa office with Wengert.

12 17. According to the Kleese Order, from about October 2007 to May 2008, Kleese 13 Respondents offered and sold, without authorization, $2,980,000 of unregistered securities in the 14 form of promissory notes issued by BSK, titled BSK Private Loan Agreements, to 57 investors, 15 some of whom were also WGS customers or salespersons, or WFG agents. The money was 16 deposited in a BSK bank account before it was wired to Chicago, Illinois, where it was to be used 17 as collateral in obtaining a line of credit to pay for the purported construction of prefabricated, low-18 cost housing. WGS's and the Division's investigations both revealed that the investors' funds were 19 not used as collateral and that the investment was misrepresented to investors. According to the 20 Kleese Order, the investments associated with BSK were not authorized investment products of 21 WGS, Kleese was not authorized by WGS to sell them, and Kleese did not adequately disclose any 22 of this to the investors.

23 18. The Order required Kleese Respondents to pay restitution in the amount of $2,439,225 24 and to pay administrative penalties in the amount of $100,000. The Commission's Order also 25 revoked Kleese's securities registration in Arizona for violations that included effecting securities 26 transactions that were not recorded on the books and records of the dealer, WGS, with whom Kleese was registered at the time of the unauthorized transactions, i.e., selling away.

1 19. The firm first learned of Kleese's selling away conduct when Wengert discovered a copy 2 of a bank wire for a transaction that was faxed to the office that he shared with Kleese, and that 3 appeared to involve Kleese. Wengert promptly forwarded the fax to the firm, and WGS 4 immediately commenced an investigation.

5 2. Blackwell Order

6 20. On October 21, 2009, in Decision No. 71302, the Commission entered a default Order to 7 Cease and Desist, for Restitution, of Revocation, and for Administrative Penalties ("Blackwell
8 Order") against Thomas S. Blackwell ("Blackwell") and his Arizona limited liability company, 9 Team Heat LLC ("Team Heat") (collectively "Blackwell Respondents"). Blackwell was a WFG
10 Qualified Marketing Director, who worked with approximately 25 agents in a WGS Tempe branch 11 office. Blackwell was supervised by BOM Dustin J. Lunt ("Lunt"), who was under the supervision 12 of OSJ Wengert.

13 21. According to the Blackwell Order, from around August 2007 to January 2008, 14 Blackwell Respondents, without authorization, solicited $1,429,000 from 11 investors who 15 purchased unregistered securities in the form of investment contracts called Rate of Return 16 Agreements, issued by Team Heat. Blackwell Respondents repaid investors amounts totaling 17 $683,365. The Commission's Order required Blackwell Respondents to pay restitution in the 18 amount of $947,931 and to pay administrative penalties in the amount of $100,000. The Order also 19 revoked Blackwell's securities registration in Arizona. According to the Blackwell Order, the Rate 20 of Return Agreements were not authorized investment products of WGS, and Blackwell was not 21 authorized by WGS to sell them.

22 22. Blackwell conducted selling away activity using his Team Heat bank account for 23 investor funds. According to the Blackwell Order, Blackwell Respondents spent $122,466 of the 24 investors' money on personal and business expenses, including $5,400 in automobile lease 25 payments.

26 23. In addition, on October 21, 2009, in Docket No. 71303, the Commission entered a default Order against Blackwell Respondents for restitution in the amount of $3,150,744.

1 3. Lunt Order

2 24. On July 16, 2009, in Decision No. 71215, the Commission entered an Order to Cease
3 and Desist, for Restitution, of Revocation, and for Administrative Penalties and Consent to Same 4 ("Lunt Order") against Lunt and his Arizona limited liability company, DJL & Associates, LLC 5 ("DJL") (collectively "Lunt Respondents"). Lunt was operating under the supervision of 6 Respondent Wengert.

7 25. According to the Lunt Order, from about October 2007 to November 2007, Lunt 8 Respondents, without authorization, offered and sold to four investors $70,000 of unregistered 9 securities in the form of investment contracts issued by DJL with the title Rate of Return Contract.
10 Lunt Respondents repaid amounts totaling $50,000 to these investors. The Commission's Order 11 required Lunt Respondents to pay restitution in the principal amount of $20,000 and to pay 12 administrative penalties in the amount of $20,000, plus interest. This amount included investments 13 made by Blackwell investors that Lunt lost in unauthorized foreign currency trading. The Order 14 also revoked Lunt's securities salesman registration in Arizona. According to the Lunt Order, the 15 Rate of Return Contracts were not authorized investment products of WGS, and Lunt was not 16 authorized by WGS to sell them.

17 D. Failure to Have Adequate Training Related to Unauthorized Private Securities
18 Transactions (Selling Away)

19 26. The securities industry prohibition against selling away is designed to protect investors, 20 securities firms, and market integrity.

21 27. WGS BOMs and OSJ Managers are field supervisors responsible for supervising all 22 registered securities salespersons assigned to their supervision. The field supervisors evidence the 23 fulfillment of certain supervisory obligations and duties in a number of ways, including through the 24 completion, collection, review, and analysis of, among others, annual questionnaires and outside 25 business activity disclosure forms.

26 28. Field supervisors are required to, among other things, monitor changes in outside business activities and review, analyze, and facilitate updates to Form U4 filings with FINRA to 1 record any changes in the outside business activities of the securities registered salespersons 2 assigned to them.

3 29. While WGS has provided, and continues to provide, training on outside business 4 activities and private securities transactions, including a training course titled Selling Away/OBA, 5 in light of the cases of Blackwell, Lunt, and Kleese, WGS should have provided its field 6 supervisors and salespersons additional training in the detection and prevention of prohibited selling 7 away conduct.

8 30. Wengert claimed that he did not adequately understand the nature and scope of the 9 prohibited conduct or his reporting obligations thereunder. Kleese told Wengert about his trip to 10 Chicago, Illinois, to review a potential outside investment in real estate. After Kleese returned from 11 that trip, Wengert confronted Kleese and received verbal assurances from Kleese that Kleese did 12 not intend to—and could not—get involved. Although Wengert did not conduct an investigation or 13 immediately report the activity underlying these discussions up his supervisory chain to WGS until 14 Wengert discovered the faxed copy of the bank wire, Wengert did follow up with Kleese on at least 15 two occasions to ensure that Kleese was not involved, and Kleese denied that he was involved each 16 time. WGS should have been notified of this activity by January 1, 2008, but the firm was first 17 given notice on May 13, 2008. During this time period, 20 investors had invested $614,000 and 18 sustained losses of $564,669.

19 31. WGS first discovered Blackwell's and Lunt's misconduct when the Securities and 20 Exchange Commission ("SEC") reported to the dealer an investigation relating to the salesmen's 21 unauthorized selling away on January 31, 2008. After January 31, 2008, and before WGS
22 terminated Blackwell on February 12, 2008, three individuals invested approximately $255,000 23 with Blackwell's unapproved and unregistered securities, for which they lost principal in the 24 amount of approximately $243,832. Lunt had one investor who lost principal in the amount of 25 $20,000 as a result of Lunt's unauthorized selling away.

26 32. Despite WGS's Firm Element Continuing Education training on outside business activities and unauthorized private securities transactions, Kleese's attendance at and completion of 1 Annual Compliance Meetings and Annual Compliance Checklists that covered these same topics, 2 and WGS's issuance of no fewer than 22 Supervisory Alerts from 2007 through 2009 relating to 3 field representatives' responsibilities regarding outside business activities or private securities 4 transactions, Kleese claimed that he did not know that he was violating rules of his firm in failing to 5 report or to request authorization from WGS to engage in his private securities transactions through 6 BSK until 2008, after the Blackwell-Lunt activities were discovered and WGS conducted a special 7 training session on private securities transactions. Even at that time, however, Kleese continued to 8 deny his involvement in private securities transactions and to conceal his activities from WGS and 9 Wengert.

10 33. During the course of the Division's investigation, Lunt also claimed confusion 11 concerning his obligations to report to the firm Blackwell's investment activities conducted through 12 an LLC because the activities involved investments made by an LLC, not personally. Although 13 investments made by LLCs are encompassed within the broad definition of "participating" set forth 14 in the prohibition on unauthorized private securities transactions contained in WGS's Written 15 Supervisory Procedures Manual, Lunt claimed that he did not consider this prohibited conduct in 16 the nature of selling away from the firm and thus failed to advise anyone up the supervisory chain at 17 WGS, including Wengert, of Blackwell's or his own misconduct. WGS's written procedures 18 regarding selling away presented the prohibited conduct with other types of conduct that required 19 prior approval, such as a salesperson's personal investment activities outside the firm, and could 20 have demarcated the prohibited conduct with enhanced clarity. However, on his Annual 21 Compliance Checklist for 2007 and 2008, Lunt acknowledged that he understood his obligations to 22 report private securities transactions prior to engaging in the activity, understood various types of 23 activities that could result in selling away, and understood the need to obtain prior written approval before engaging in any outside business activities.

24 34. Lunt and Blackwell had a familial relationship. Also, Blackwell was an upline to Lunt 25 in the WFG marketing organization. WGS sought to address these issues in a coordinated fashion 26 by, among other things, requiring successful completion of an interview with Lunt's ROSJ Manager

1 and branch office visits and meetings by the ROSJ Manager, RCM, and others; however, in light of 2 the cases of Lunt and Blackwell, additional training should have been provided in the detection and 3 prevention of prohibited selling away conduct.

4 35. Lunt had been in the securities business for one year when he passed the registered 5 principal exam and successfully completed the ROSJ Manager interview, and assumed the duties of 6 a BOS for a required six-month period before he could become BOM for Blackwell's team. During 7 the six-month period that he was acting as BOS, Wengert supervised Lunt and provided informal 8 training. During that period, Lunt claimed that he learned WGS policies and procedures solely 9 through self-study, and that Wengert did not conduct any face-to-face compliance interviews or 10 formal training sessions with him. However, Lunt also admitted that he was interviewed by and 11 received training from others, such as the ROSJ Manager.

12 36. Lunt claimed that he did not conduct certain required interviews, including a quarterly 13 interview of Blackwell, although Quarterly Interview Worksheets signed by Lunt show otherwise.
14 Wengert stated that he completed the required interviews of Lunt and Kleese but was unable to 15 locate certain interview documentation. WGS nonetheless disciplined Wengert for failing to file 16 certain annual questionnaires from supervisory interviews with WGS Compliance. In December 17 2008, WGS issued a letter of caution and fined Wengert for failing to conduct or complete 18 interview questionnaires for certain BOMs under his supervision, including Kleese and Lunt.
19 Wengert voluntarily withdrew from supervision and he no longer holds the supervisory positions of 20 BOM or OSJ Manager for WGS.

21 E. WGS's Remedial Efforts Undertaken

22 37. To date, WGS has revised its supervisory policies and procedures manual and 23 implemented a number of additional steps to prevent or detect unauthorized outside business 24 activity ("OBA") and unapproved private securities transactions ("PST"), including, but not limited 25 to, the following:

26 a) Private Securities Transaction Disclosure Form: On January 7, 2008, WGS issued a Supervisory Bulletin that announced the enhanced reporting obligations for field representatives

1 wishing to purchase or sell PSTs for their own account. This bulletin introduced a new PST
2 Disclosure Form that requires substantially more information from the field representative. The 3 bulletin further clarified the procedures to be followed by a field representative and also required 4 that all PST disclosures be reviewed, and either approved or denied, by the ROSJ Manager.

5 b) Training — Alerts and Bulletins: In 2002, WGS issued Compliance Bulletins that 6 defined OBAs and PSTs and explained the proper use of the OBA Disclosure Form. From 2002
7 through the present, WGS has issued numerous Supervisory Alerts addressing field representatives' 8 responsibilities with respect to OBAs and PSTs. In a Supervisory Bulletin dated January 7, 2008, 9 WGS announced the publication of a PST disclosure form and the changes in procedures for its 10 completion and submission to WGS. In a Supervisory Alert dated September 25, 2009, WGS 11 reminded field representatives of WGS policies regarding PST disclosure.

12 c) Training — Programs Focused on Selling Away: Within just a few days of WGS
13 first learning about Blackwell's and Lunt's selling away cases, WGS embarked upon a face-to-face 14 training campaign in its Arizona branch offices. Field representatives were provided this training 15 by qualified Home Office employees. At the conclusion of these face-to-face trainings, the field 16 representatives were required to certify, as evidenced by their signatures, that they understood what 17 was discussed during the selling away training and that they were not involved in any unapproved 18 OBAs or PSTs.

19 To augment the face-to-face training campaign, WGS implemented a mandatory selling 20 away training course (Compliance Bulletin dated July 18, 2008) in a further effort to highlight to its 21 field representatives the importance of this issue. The selling away training course was titled 22 Selling Away/OBA. This training was first introduced to field representatives who resided in 23 Arizona, were supervised in Arizona branch offices, or held a resident or non-resident Arizona 24 securities registration in Arizona.

25 d) Internal Review — Arizona Field Supervisors' OBAs: On June 11, 2008, WGS 26 initiated an internal review that specifically focused on all Arizona field supervisors who had established bank accounts in the names of their approved OBAs. It is not uncommon for field

1 supervisors to establish bank accounts in the names of their OBAs in order to manage the expenses 2 of operating their offices. This internal review concentrated on an entire 12-month period and was 3 in-depth and broad-ranging, as evidenced by its closing date, April 1, 2009. WGS conducted a 4 thorough review of bank account statements focusing on large deposits or large withdrawals, and, at 5 times, obtaining copies of cancelled checks or deposits made by the field supervisor in the account 6 to determine their purpose. WGS's internal review did not identify any selling away activities on 7 the part of Arizona field supervisors.

8 e) Enhanced Supervision — Monitoring of Field Representative Income and 9 Production: WGS issued a Compliance Bulletin dated October 8, 2008, which empowered its 10 Field Audit Department and compliance personnel to review the personal bank statements of its 11 field representatives. In 2009, WGS refined and enhanced this control by requiring Field 12 Compliance Auditors to request personal bank statements for 10 percent of the branch audits they 13 perform. At least one field representative will be selected for review of personal bank statements in 14 10 percent of the branch audits. This control measure is targeted on a risk-based basis at field 15 representatives who may have had a significant reduction in their income or production, field
16 representatives who may have "doing-business-as" OBAs, and field representatives whose OBAs 17 are more of a particular interest to WGS. The criteria used to target this control measure are factors 18 that WGS believes to be indicia that signal an increased risk of unapproved OBA or PST activity.

19 f) Heightened Supervision: On May 27, 2008, WGS established an enhanced 20 supervisory procedure for field supervisors that requires the field supervisors to undertake 21 heightened responsibilities involved in supervising a family member or business upline. Whenever 22 a field supervisor is supervising a business upline or family member, WGS requires the field 23 supervisor to acknowledge and certify the existence of the relationship and his or her understanding 24 of the risks, liabilities, duties, and responsibilities that pertain to the supervision. Heightened 25 supervision involving such relationships has also been implemented for the ROSJ Manager, 26 including enhanced procedures for monitoring and reviewing transactions, and participating in compliance audits and supervisory interviews.

1 g) Semi-Annual Interviews: On January 8, 2009, WGS issued a Supervisory Bulletin 2 that implemented refinements in the procedures pertaining to interviews of field representatives.
3 The changes included a reduction in the number of interviews from quarterly to semi-annually, but 4 the scope and depth of information gathered and documented for each interview were greatly 5 enhanced. The interview documentation process is divided into three sections: pre-interview data 6 collection, group meeting, and personal interview. Field supervisors are also required to document 7 pre-interview preparation data that is designed to identify red flags.

8 h) WGS Newsletter — WGSspotlight: In the third quarter of 2008, WGS provided 9 another training opportunity to its field representatives by focusing on selling away in the firm's 10 quarterly newsletter, WGSspotlight.

11 REMEDIAL MEASURES ORDERED

12 38. WGS agrees to initiate or implement the remedial measures delineated below within six 13 months of the date of this Order, addressing changes to its supervisory and compliance procedures 14 and controls to reduce as much as reasonably and practically possible the potential that non-15 compliant activity will occur:

16 a) Continue to provide enhanced training related to supervisory detection and 17 prevention of prohibited private securities transactions to all Arizona field supervisors on a regular 18 basis for three years from the date of this Order.

19 b) Beginning with the 2010 audit year, conduct unannounced branch office audits of all 20 Arizona locations for three years from the date of this Order.

21 c) Revise the section of the existing policies and procedures manual regarding 22 prohibited conduct involving private securities transactions to enhance the clarity of the prohibition 23 on participating in any manner in unauthorized conduct involving the promotion or sale of 24 investment products that are not recorded on the books and records of WGS and to emphasize the 25 importance that WGS places on this issue.

26 d) In addition to the existing policies, procedures, systems, and controls in place in the field and centrally at the WGS Home Office to address the issue of one family member supervising

1 another, where there is a familial relationship between a supervisor and a field representative in 2 Arizona, the WGS Home Office shall implement the following measures: (1) obtain and review a 3 credit report on the field representative twice a year (approximately June and December) to 4 determine whether indicia of possible selling away are present; and (2) review the 12-month rolling 5 cash flow of any such field representative twice a year (approximately June and December), 6 including any commissions that the field representative has made and, if there is a decrease in the 7 rolling cash flow of 25 percent or more from the prior 12 months, WGS Compliance shall conduct 8 an internal review to determine if the field representative has engaged in any impermissible selling 9 away activities. These additional safeguards shall remain in force for three years from the date of 10 this Order.

11 II.

12 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

13 1. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Article XV of the Arizona 14 Constitution and the Securities Act.

15 2. WGS failed to adequately supervise its registered securities salesmen, pursuant to 16 A.R.S. § 44-1961(A)(12), in that WGS should have provided WGS field supervisors and 17 salespersons with additional training in the detection and prevention of prohibited selling away 18 conduct.

19 3. Wengert failed to reasonably supervise WGS registered securities salesmen under his 20 supervisory control, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1962(A)(11).

21 4. Kleese, Lunt, and Blackwell engaged in fraudulent acts or practices in connection with 22 the unauthorized purchase or sale of unregistered securities within the meaning of A.R.S. §§ 44-23 1841 and 44-1991. Kleese, Lunt, and Blackwell engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the 24 securities industry within the meaning of A.A.C. R14-4-130.

25 5. WGS's conduct is grounds for an order of restitution pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-26 1961(B)(3).

6. WGS's conduct is grounds for an order of administrative penalties under A.R.S. § 44-1961(B)(1).

7. Wengert's conduct is grounds for an order of administrative penalties under A.R.S. § 44-1962(B)(1).

ORDER

THEREFORE, on the basis of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Respondents' consent to the entry of this Order, attached and incorporated by reference, the Commission finds that the following relief is appropriate, in the public interest, and necessary for the protection of investors:

IT IS ORDERED that Respondents comply with the attached Consent to Entry of Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1961, that Respondent WGS shall pay restitution to the Commission in the principal amount of $828,501. The restitution amount includes funds raised by Kleese from investors through the sale of unregistered securities not approved by WGS from January 1, 2008, through May 13, 2008; funds raised by Blackwell from investors through the sale of unregistered securities not approved by WGS after January 31, 2008, until Blackwell's termination from WGS on February 12, 2008; and funds raised by Lunt from an investor through the sale of an unregistered security not approved by WGS on or about October 11, 2007. The total amount of restitution does not include funds raised through the sale of securities not approved by WGS to registered securities salesmen of WGS, relatives of Respondents in the prior administrative Orders, persons who participated in the sale of the securities, or persons who invested before or after the relevant time periods for purposes of restitution pursuant to this Order. Payment is due in full on the date of this Order. Payment shall be made to the "State of Arizona" to be placed in an interest-bearing account controlled by the Commission.

The Commission shall disburse the funds on a pro-rata basis to investors shown on the records of the Commission. Any restitution funds that the Commission cannot disburse because an

1 investor refuses to accept such payment, or any restitution funds that cannot be disbursed to an 2 investor because the investor is deceased and the Commission cannot reasonably identify and 3 locate the deceased investor's spouse or natural children surviving at the time of the distribution, 4 shall be disbursed on a pro-rata basis to the remaining investors shown on the records of the 5 Commission. Any funds that the Commission determines it is unable to or cannot feasibly disburse 6 shall be transferred to the general fund of the state of Arizona.

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1961, that Respondent WGS shall 8 pay an administrative penalty in the amount of $50,000, to be reduced to $25,000 if paid in full on 9 the date of this Order. Payment shall be made to the "State of Arizona." Any amount outstanding 10 shall accrue interest as allowed by law.

11 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that payments received by the state of Arizona from WGS 12 shall first be applied to the restitution obligation. Upon payment in full of the restitution obligation, 13 payments shall be applied to the penalty obligation.

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1962(B)(1), that Respondent

1 7. By consenting to the entry of this Order, Respondents agree not to take any action or to
